WAR MONUMENTS

Time Magazine reports a revolt springing up throughout the Nation against the traditional memorials which are built after each war. Instead of grandiose creations in granite or monstrosities in marble, the trend is toward more practical remembrances such as parks and recreation centers.

This is a sensible approach. After World War I, many millions of dollars were spent in building massive structures in stone that had little practical use and still less artistic value.

But even the planning of more useful memorials should not be an excuse for spending huge sums of money. At the present time, in the desire to express their gratitude to our war heroes, some communities are planning projects which are much more ambitious than their treasuries can really afford. The result is that taxes are being increased to meet the cost.

In some instances, the expense of a project is excused by the argument that it will provide postwar employment. This is true in a degree, but it should be realized that a genuine solution to the postwar job problem—in which veterans have a vital stake—will not be reached merely by constructing war memorials or any other type of public works.

The real need after the war will be to keep the expenses—and therefore the taxes—of local, state and the Federal governments at the lowest practical figures so that America will not be hampered in the march toward a sound postwar economy.

Great monuments may be impressive. Marble and granite memorials can be beautiful. But we can best pay our debt to the men in this war by giving them, and the sons and daughters of the honored dead, the opportunity to live free from the burden of excessive taxation.

PEARL HARBOR

We'll bet the Japs now wish they had stayed home. No doubt about it. But it all seemed so easy three years ago. America was asleep. They knew that few persons in this country thought Japan would attack us, and fewer still believed that an attack would come without warning.

When the smoke cleared away over Pearl Harbor, the Japanese leaders were positive they had made the right move. We were as near defeat as we have ever been since the Revolution. To the Japs it looked like a sure thing. But that was three years ago.

The danger now is that we are being lulled into the belief that victory will come automatically. It won't. We are winning, but victories are born only of unceasing hard work and hard fighting.

As a nation, we have accomplished miracles since December 7, 1941. At times we forget, however, that only as these miracles continue can we reach both Berlin and Tokyo. We are in little danger of a "Pearl Harbor" in these days—that is, as far as a military attack is concerned. But if we become complacent we may be caught off guard by a production shortage of some vital war supply that could prove disastrous.

Much will be said and written on this third anniversary of the "day of infamy." Nothing will better express the spirit of the day, however, than the efforts of those who stay on the job, buy War Bonds, donate blood.

Through their work, together with that of our fighting men, they are helping to make future "Pearl Harbors" impossible.

1945 AUTO LICENSES

Well, Californians are to have license plates—or plate—once again in 1945. But if you want one that corresponds with your telephone or house number you had better forget it. The Motor Vehicle department announces that plates will not be taken out of their regular issuing order.

The 1945 plate will have a black background with dull white letters. The lowest number will be 1A101. The single plate will be displayed on the rear of the car.

The Motor Vehicle department also reveals that in spite of car rationing, California showed an increase in cars and trucks in the first nine months of this year. Most of the increase was in the heavy commercial trucks and trailers which are hauling an unprecedented tonnage of materiel produced in essential war industries.

Auto taxes will be the same next year, having been frozen for the three years 1943-45 inclusive. What action the Legislature will take for 1946 and '47 at its next session remains to be seen. Some automotive taxes, however, such as the three per cent gross receipts tax on commercial motor vehicle operators which has been recognized as discriminatory, are expected to be repealed.

Registration and motor vehicle license fees for the first nine months of this year totaled $27,744,233, or nearly $1,000,000 more than the figures for the same period in 1943.

It looks like the automobile is "here to stay," after all.

Postponement of the December 15 Income Tax period for thirty days until January 15, 1945 was announced today in San Francisco by Collector of Internal Revenue Harold A. Berliner.

Tax bills for the December 15 quarterly payment are now in the mail the collector said. Persons receiving these bills will notice the date has been changed to January 15, 1945.

"Taxpayers may make their December 15 payment by January 15, 1945 without incurring penalty or interest" Collector Berliner pointed out. "However payment of the fourth income tax installment will be accepted by December 15."

Collector Berliner stated that the time for filing final returns, March 15, 1945, has not been changed.

WASTE PAPER

When salvage paper is collected, to avoid fire hazard, the Department of Agriculture recommends that it be stacked neatly and tied in bundles. Paper boxes should be flattened, then tied in tight bundles. A metal trunk or bin with a tight cover is the safest place to store paper. Next best is to stack paper bundles on a cement floor away from furnace, stove or hot pipes. Soiled or oily paper is useless for salvage and is also a fire hazard and should be destroyed.

Motorists To Renew Licenses Early

Motorists of Daly City with drivers licenses expiring in January or February, 1945, today are urged by the Department of Motor Vehicles to renew them now in order to avoid delays during the annual registration renewal season beginning, January 2.

The law authorizes such renewals 90 days in advance of expiration dates. There is no charge for renewals.

Director Gordon H. Garland explained that the present manpower shortage in the department makes it necessary for many of the drivers license examiners to assist in the registration renewal work during January. He asked all drivers to look at their licenses and see when they expire.

Our boys must keep on fighting—we must keep on buying WAR BONDS until victory is won. Keep on BACKING THE ATTACK.

WEDDING

City Judge William J. Sweeney performed a wedding ceremony at his home, 6806 Misison street, Tuesday evening, November 21. Exchanging wedding vows were Miss Josephine Hanna and Walter Adami, both of San Francisco.
